MENU

The instructions for each part of the test are in the box at the top of the screen.

Listen carefully for the Part number and Question numbers to make sure you are looking at the right screen.

You can change the volume by clicking on the plus or minus buttons at the bottom of the screen at any time during the test.

Part 1, Part 2 and Part 4

To answer a question in Parts 1, 2 or 4, choose one of the answers, for example A, B or C.

Click on the button next to the answer that you have chosen.

If you want to change your answer, click on another button.

If you want to leave the question without an answer, click on the button again.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with buttons for 'TRANSCRIPT', 'CHECK ANSWERS', 'DICTIONARY', and 'HELP', along with a 'time left: 19 mins' indicator. Below this is a white box containing instructions: 'There are seven questions in this part. For each question, there are three pictures and a short recording. Click on A, B or C to show which is the correct picture.' A box labeled 'Instructions' has an arrow pointing to this text. The main question area displays '1' and 'What does the boy want from the shops?'. Below the question are three image options: A (a newspaper titled 'DAILY'), B (a soccer ball), and C (a toy car). Each image has a radio button below it. A box labeled 'Answer' has arrows pointing to each of the three radio buttons. At the bottom, there is a 'LISTENING' section with numbered buttons for 'Part 1' (1-7), 'Part 2' (8-13), 'Part 3' (14-19), and 'Part 4' (20-25), an 'END' button, a 'MENU' button, and a 'Volume' control with a slider and '+'/'-' buttons.

You can use the navigation at the bottom of the screen, or click on the NEXT button to move from one question to the next question. The NEXT button appears every time you have answered a question.

The navigation shows which questions you have answered. A line appears under the question number if you have answered the question.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface. At the top, there is a text box with instructions: "There are seven questions in this part. For each question, there are three pictures and a short recording. Click on A, B or C to show which is the correct picture." To the right of this box are buttons for "TRANSCRIPT", "CHECK ANSWERS", "DICTIONARY", and "HELP", along with a "time left: 18 mins" indicator. Below the instructions is a "next" button with a right-pointing arrow, which is highlighted by a callout box labeled "NEXT button". The main question area displays "1" and the question "What does the boy want from the shops?". Below the question are three image options labeled A, B, and C. Option A shows a newspaper titled "DAILY", option B shows a boy with a soccer ball, and option C shows a comic book. Each option has a radio button below it. At the bottom of the screen is a "LISTENING" navigation bar with numbered buttons for questions 1 through 25. Question 1 is highlighted with a white background. To the left of the navigation bar is a callout box labeled "Navigation bar". On the right side of the navigation bar is a "Volume:" control with a slider and a "MENU" button.

Part 3

To answer a question in Part 3, type your answers in the spaces.

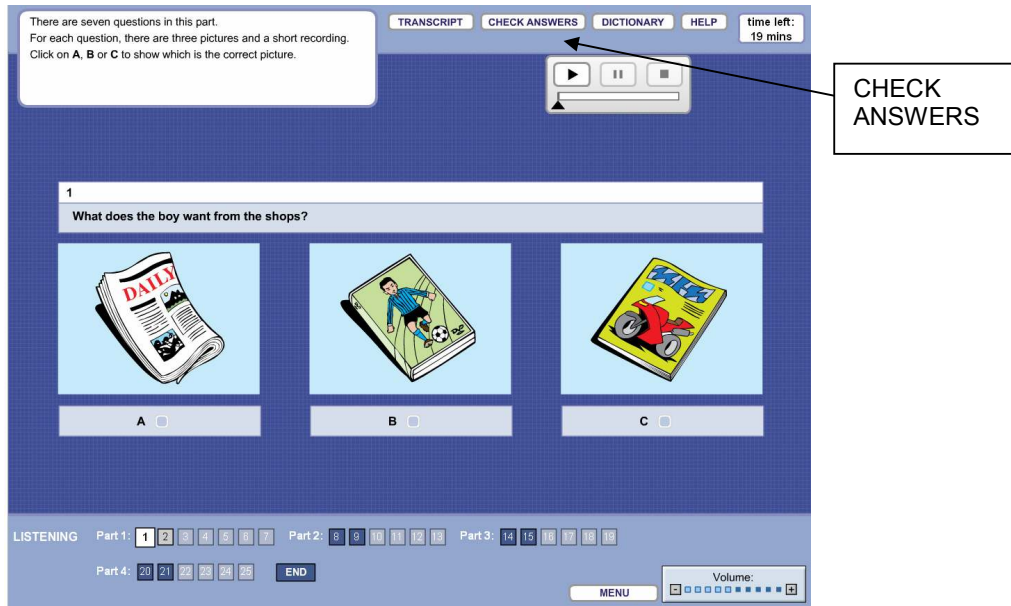

You will have 2 minutes after Part 3 to type your answers.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface for Part 3. At the top, there is a text box with instructions: "For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space. You will hear some information about a film-making competition." To the right of this box are buttons for "TRANSCRIPT", "CHECK ANSWERS", "DICTIONARY", and "HELP", along with a "time left: 17 mins" indicator. Below the instructions is a "next" button with a right-pointing arrow. The main question area displays "FILM-MAKING COMPETITION" and several input fields: "Maximum length of film: []", "Type of film: [15]", "Subject this year: The [16]", "JUDGES: Martha Fernando, presenter of the programme called 'Film [17]', Mark Matthews, director", and "PRIZES: First prize: visit to a film school". To the right of the input fields is a callout box labeled "Type answer here" with an arrow pointing to the first input field. On the right side of the main content area is a vertical "Scroll bar" with a callout box labeled "Scroll bar" and an arrow pointing to it. At the bottom of the screen is a "LISTENING" navigation bar with numbered buttons for questions 1 through 25. Question 14 is highlighted with a white background. To the left of the navigation bar is a callout box labeled "Navigation bar". On the right side of the navigation bar is a "Volume:" control with a slider and a "MENU" button.

You can review and change your answers at any time until the end of the test.

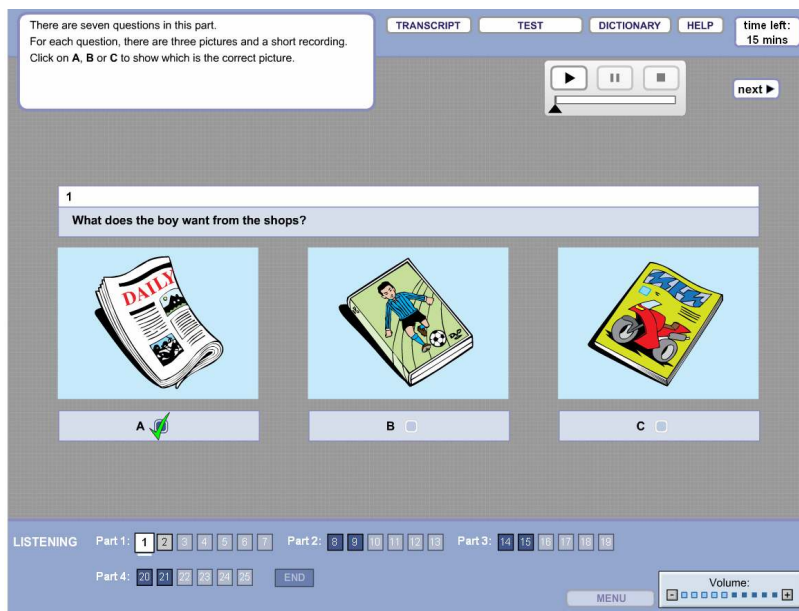

Learner Mode Functions

If you want to check your answers during the test, click on the CHECK ANSWERS button.

If your answer is correct a tick will appear next to your answer.

The screenshot shows the Learner Mode interface after the user has selected answer A. The 'CHECK ANSWERS' button has been replaced by a 'TEST' button. A 'next' button is now visible in the playback control bar. The question '1 What does the boy want from the shops?' is still displayed. Below the question, the radio button for option A is now checked, and a green checkmark appears next to it. The radio buttons for options B and C are unchecked. The 'LISTENING' section at the bottom remains the same, showing the progress bar and 'END' button. The volume control bar is also present at the bottom right.

If your answer is incorrect a cross will appear next to your answer and a tick will appear next to the correct answer.

Click the TEST button to return to the test.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface. At the top, there are buttons for TRANSCRIPT, TEST, DICTIONARY, and HELP. A 'time left: 15 mins' indicator is in the top right. Below the buttons is a playback control bar with play, pause, and stop buttons, and a 'next' button. A text box on the left contains instructions: 'There are seven questions in this part. For each question, there are three pictures and a short recording. Click on A, B or C to show which is the correct picture.' The main question area shows '1' and 'What does the boy want from the shops?'. Below this are three picture options: A (a newspaper), B (a boy with a soccer ball), and C (a motorcycle). Under each picture is a radio button. Option A has a green checkmark, B has a red X, and C has an empty radio button. At the bottom, there is a 'LISTENING' section with numbered buttons for questions 1 through 25, an 'END' button, a 'MENU' button, and a volume control slider.

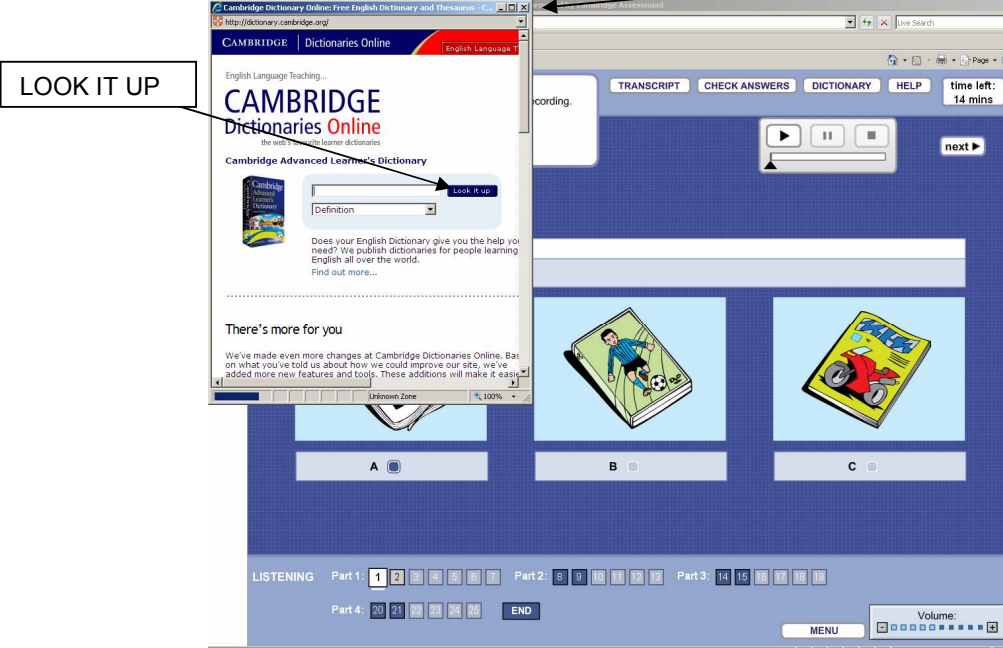

If you want to look up a word, click on the DICTIONARY button.

The screenshot shows the same listening test interface as above, but with the 'DICTIONARY' button highlighted. The 'time left' indicator now shows '19 mins'. The 'TEST' button is no longer visible. The rest of the interface, including the question, pictures, and navigation controls, remains the same.

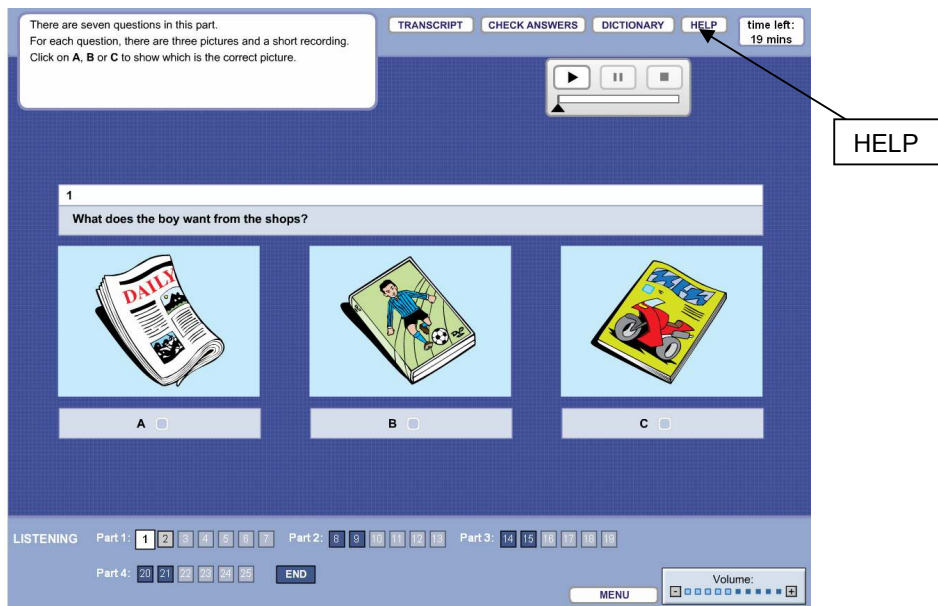

Type your word in the box in the dictionary screen and click on LOOK IT UP.

To close the dictionary, click on the cross in the corner.

To close the dictionary

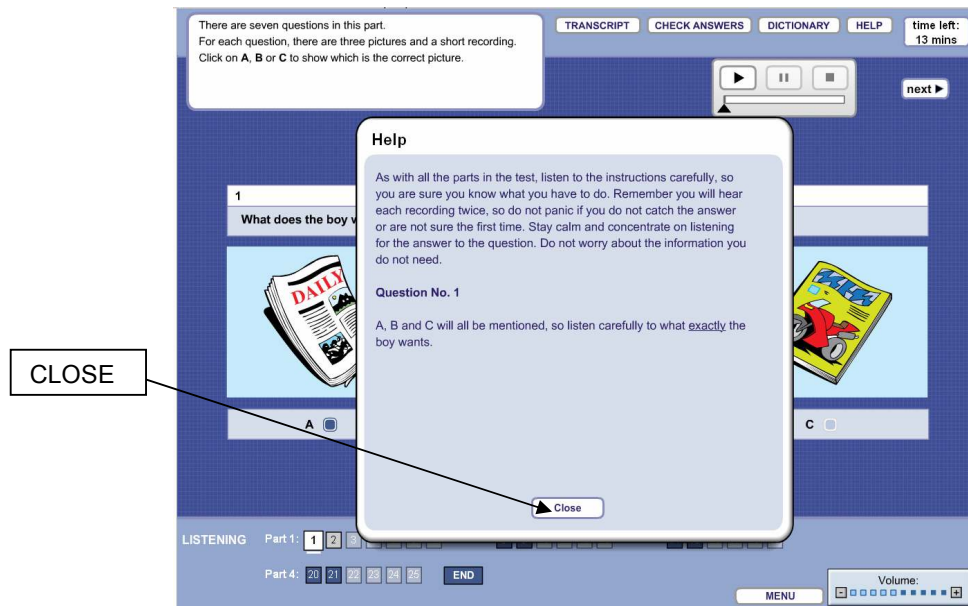

If you want help answering any of the questions in the test, click on the HELP button.

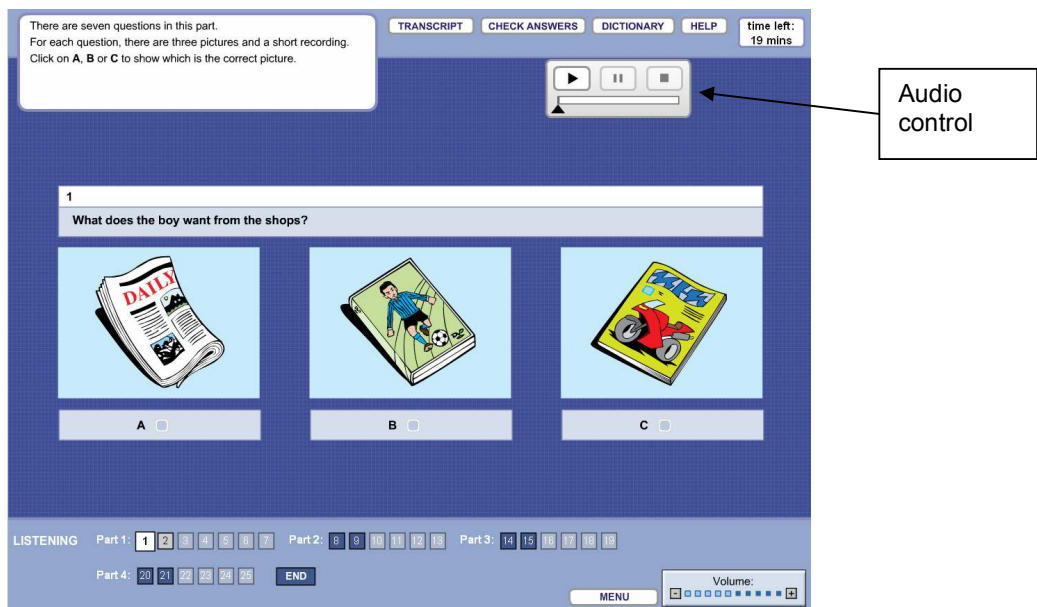

You can use the cursor to move the help screen if you want to.

Click on the CLOSE button to return to the test.

In Learner Mode you can use the audio control to stop and pause the audio. In Test Mode, as in the real exam, you cannot pause or stop the audio.

You can also read a copy of the recorded text by clicking on the TRANSCRIPT button.

To close, click on the CLOSE button.

The screenshot shows the same listening test interface as above, but with a 'TRANSCRIPT' window open. The transcript text is: 'M: Are you going to the shops today, Mum? F: I expect so – what do you want – not another football DVD. M: Actually not this time. I was wondering if you could get me a newspaper. Not the one Dad gets, but one called the Daily Herald – there's an article in it about motorbikes which will be useful for a project I'm doing at school. F: Motorbikes again! Still it makes a change from football I suppose. OK, I'll get it.' A 'CLOSE' button is highlighted with a callout box. The 'time left' indicator now shows '12 mins'. The 'TRANSCRIPT' button in the top navigation bar is also highlighted.

You will have 2 minutes to check your answers at the end of the test.

In the real exam, you have approximately 35 minutes to complete the test.

This Free Sample is shorter.

There is a clock at the top of the screen which tells you how much time you have left.

This clock will flash when you have 10 minutes and 5 minutes left.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface. At the top right, there is a clock labeled "time left: 19 mins" with an arrow pointing to it from a box labeled "CLOCK". Below the clock are buttons for "TRANSCRIPT", "CHECK ANSWERS", "DICTIONARY", and "HELP". A central audio player shows a play button, a pause button, and a progress bar. The main question area contains the text: "1 What does the boy want from the shops?". Below this are three image options: A (a newspaper titled "DAILY"), B (a boy with a soccer ball), and C (a boy with a bicycle). At the bottom, there is a "LISTENING" section with question numbers 1 through 28, an "END" button, and a "MENU" button. A volume control icon is also present.

The test will tell you when the time is up. If you want to end the test yourself, click on the END button.

When you have answered all of the questions the SUBMIT ANSWERS button will appear at the bottom of the screen.

Please remember in the real Online Practice Test you can only submit your answers once.

The screenshot shows a listening test interface for a true/false section. At the top right, there is a clock labeled "time left: 11 mins" with an arrow pointing to it from a box labeled "SUBMIT ANSWERS". Below the clock are buttons for "TRANSCRIPT", "CHECK ANSWERS", "DICTIONARY", and "HELP". A central audio player shows a play button, a pause button, and a progress bar. The main question area contains the text: "20 Antony enjoyed watching last night's 'Pop Choice'." followed by "YES" and "NO" radio buttons. Below this are five more questions (21-25) with similar "YES" and "NO" options. At the bottom, there is a "LISTENING" section with question numbers 1 through 28, an "END" button, and a "SUBMIT ANSWERS" button. A volume control icon is also present. An arrow points from a box labeled "END" to the "END" button in the interface.

A scores screen will then appear.

In the full test, the PRINT SCORES button will appear here. In the full test, you can print scores for Reading & Writing and Listening.

In the full test, if you want your answers explained you can click on the ANSWER FEEDBACK button at the bottom of the screen.

To exit the test, click on the EXIT button.
